

Name: _____

Department/Unit: _____

Start Date: _____

Desired Completion: _____

Advising Foundations & Sessions (available on Advising@CSU)

Overview of CSU Advising Infrastructure

- Enhancement and Future of Academic Guidance at CSU^P

Theories on advising and student development

- Academic Advising: One of the Most Impactful Experiences for Students^P

Advising resources

- How to have resources at my finger tips^P
- Self-care in Advising
- Meaningful Conversations^P

Advising Tools

- Introduction to Student Success Collaborative (SSC) Campus^P
- Advising Comments^P
- Degree Progress Audit
- Course and Graduation Planner

Scholastic Standards and appeals

- What are CSU Scholastic Standard (Academic Standards) Policies and how can I help students who are appealing?^P

Common academic policies and procedures

- Learning Policies and Procedures with Case Studies^P
- How can I support my students unsure about their major?^P

Outreach, Intervention, and Tracking

- What are the ways I can evaluate the impact of my advising?^P
- Early Term Outreach^P
- Later and Post Term Outreach^P

Working with Students in Crisis and Campus Resources

- Case Management Team and Role on Campus^P
- Campus Sexual Violence Elimination (SaVE) Act & Title IX: Role & Responsibilities of Faculty and Staff^P

P - Sessions marked with P are primary sessions that are essential to provide advising functions and are offered each semester. The remainder of the sessions are secondary and will alternate between fall and spring semesters.

Specific Advising Populations and Commitment to Diversity

- Inclusive Advising: What does that mean? ^P
- First Generation College Students
- How can I best interact with Adult Learners and Veterans?
- What do I need to know to best support students with learning disabilities? ^P
- Resources to support Struggling Students ^P
- Holistic Approach When Working with Complex Situations
- Community for Excellence
- Student Athletes
- Working with Honors Students
- Health Profession Students
- Working with Parents and Families
- Advising International Students ^P
- Advising Transfer Students ^P
- Visits to campus offices (see below for SDPS and LSC Student Offices)

Student Financial Services

- Helpful Insights from Office of Financial Aid

Admissions and Student Pipeline

- Admissions and the Student Pipeline

Campus Safety - Guides and Resources at <http://safety.colostate.edu>

- Campus Safety Resources

Student Support Programs

- Orientation and Transition Programs
- CSU Learning Communities
- In What Ways Does Residence Life Engage and Support Students I Support?

Campus Tours - Knowing location of offices for improved referral

- Office visits in Lory Student Center & Student Diversity and Programs Services ^P
- Academic Services near the CSU Oval ^P (Education Abroad, Assistive Technology, TILT, Student Financial Services, Office of Undergraduate Research and Artistry)
- CSU Health Network, Resolution Center ^P (Hartshorn, Counseling Services, Conduct and Conflict Resolution, Case Management)

Department Sessions, Requirements, Requests (e.g. how advisors are assigned; requirements for and details about concentrations/minors/specialty tracks; student population; changes in and out of majors):

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____